COMPETITION PROCEDURES

The Los Angeles Area Emmy Awards are under the jurisdiction of the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences, a professional association based in Los Angeles. Nearly 16,000 members of the Academy represent all areas of television production and administration. In addition to the Los Angeles Area Emmys, the Academy has jurisdiction over the Primetime Emmy Awards.

The rules, procedures and conduct of the Los Angeles Area Emmys are the responsibility of the awards committee, which is comprised of Los Angeles Area news and program directors. The committee is co-chaired by Greg Taylor and Mitch Waldow. The Vice Chair for the Los Angeles Area branch, will be announced December 16, 2009.

Through a series of committee meetings held in the fall of each year, the rules, procedures and calendar for the annual competition are determined. Rules books are distributed to the Los Angeles Area peer group members and local stations in December 2009. The deadline for entries is January 29, 2010, 5pm.

All entries are then verified for eligibility and proper placement in the appropriate categories. Eligible entries are printed on category-by-category ballots and packaged together with the corresponding DVDs in preparation for judging.

Ballots and DVDs will be sent to the Academy's active peer group members for judging. Nominees and winners are chosen by judges within the Academy's active membership peer groups.

Nominees are announced on June 24, 2010. All nominees are invited to attend the awards presentation on July 31, 2010. Nominees that are active members are entitled to one complimentary ticket to the awards presentation. Nominees are issued nomination certificates, and Emmy winners receive the Emmy Award. The award is a gold-plated statue that depicts the muse of art uplifting the atom of science. The purpose of the award is to recognize outstanding achievements in the arts and sciences of television. Winners may purchase production certificates recognizing those who contributed to the winning achievement.

RULES AND PROCEDURES

1. AWARDS YEAR: JANUARY 1, 2009- DECEMBER 31, 2009

2. GENERAL INFORMATION

2a. Entrants need not be Academy members.

2b. Entrants must be credited on the program or individual achievement that is being entered, e.g., a writer who is credited for writing a program may enter his/her achievement in the appropriate category, but may not additionally enter on behalf of the director in a directing category - unless he/she is also credited as being the director.

2c. There will be no changing as-aired credits in order to give eligibility to an individual who did not have an eligible title, except in cases where there was an oversight confirmed by a program's executive producer, producer and production engineering executive (EIC).

2d. It is a general principle of this contest that a single achievement is limited to a single bid for an Emmy. This principle requires that every entrant place his/her achievement in only one category, e.g., a producer may enter a program in the category for Live Special Events, but may not also enter that program in the Entertainment Programming category.

2e. Any individual with an Emmy-eligible title may initiate an entry or add himself/herself to an entry made by someone else.

2f. Entries must have been initially broadcast during the calendar year 2009.

2g. Entries must have been produced, solely financed and controlled by a Los Angeles area television station, its broadband component or CATV system. Programming must have a broadcast commitment and be engaged from the creative and financial get-go with a Los Angeles station, its broadband component or CATV system in order to be eligible for this competition. Public Access programming must have been produced solely for the Los Angeles market. Programming outside of the above parameters that is merely acquired for Los Angeles broadcast is not eligible.

2h. Entries produced for syndication or network are not eligible.

2i. A program that is syndicated or networked after it has fulfilled the requirements for Los Angeles eligibility does not lose that eligibility as a consequence of being syndicated or networked.

2j. Telethons for the purpose of political fund-raising are not eligible. A political fund-raiser telethon is defined as a program that is formatted around appeals for television-audience donations to a political party or political cause. Non-political telethons that meet LA Area eligibility rules are eligible to be entered in an appropriate specials category. In a case where there is a cut-away from a national, non-political telethon to a locally-produced segment, the locally produced segment is eligible in an appropriate segment category.

2k. Entries may not contain more than 25% continuous, unedited or unchanged footage of pre-production from another source, e.g., a program comprised of a feature film with host wrap-arounds is not eligible, whereas a program that includes more than 25% file footage that has been re-dubbed with a locally-produced audio track is eligible.

2l. Entries must present the program as broadcast, with the commercials removed and replaced by 3-5 seconds of black. Submissions must be entered on DVD-R format. (Please refer to page 11 for DVD formatting instructions.)

2m. A synopsis (not a sales pitch), or a breakdown of program elements may be included with each entry.

2n. Categories that receive 6 or more entries is a single, must give award that is the result of head-to-head competition with the highest vote-getter receiving an Emmy. Where there are 5 or less entries in a category, any entry that gets a 2/3 approval receives a nomination. Highest vote-getter wins.

2o. All foreign-language entries must be submitted with either an audio English translation or on-screen English subtitles.

3. COMPOSITING RULES

3a. SPECIALS

A "special" is a program broadcast in one or two parts. The entire program as broadcast must be submitted. Commercials must be replaced with 3-5 seconds of black. A written breakdown of the program elements may be included with the entry.

3b. EPISODIC SERIES WITH TYPICAL EPISODE LENGTH OF 60 MINUTES OR LESS

A "series" is defined as three or more programs under the same series title. Compositing segments must be commercial-to-commercial with no internal editing. The composite must include one separate segment from any three separate episodes (entrant's choice), for a total of three segments total, not to exceed the normal running time of the series episode.

3c. EPISODIC SERIES WITH TYPICAL EPISODE LENGTH OF MORE THAN 60 MINUTES

If the series episodes typically have a running time of more than 60 minutes, e.g., "Dodger Baseball," the entry must be of a single episode, e.g., one baseball game must be composited. The composite must be 50-75 minutes in length with no internal editing. The program units do not have to be contiguous, but must be sequenced in the same order as they appeared in the segments or reports. Commercials must be replaced with 3-5 seconds of black. A written breakdown of the program elements may be included with the entry.

3d. SEGMENTS OR REPORTS THAT RUN LONGER THAN 60 MINUTES

Entries for segments or reports that are broadcast in multiple parts with a running time of more than 60 minutes must be composited. The composite must be 50-75 minutes in length with no internal editing. The program units do not have to be contiguous, but must be sequenced in the same order as they appeared in the segments or reports. Each program unit must be separated by 3-5 seconds of black. Entries must be accompanied by a written log showing the time of day of the segments and the subject matter.

3e. INDIVIDUAL ACHIEVEMENT

For entries in categories 36-48. Only one entry per individual. The individual must submit a compilation DVD that includes two to five segments of his/her best work for the year. The composite is intended to convey to the judges the scope or range of an individual's craft contribution to a particular program, series or segment. Straight, unedited lifts may be included in addition to other "as aired" elements. All entries must be edited back-to-back (straight edits) with no post production enhancements such as effects, music or narrative. Composites must not exceed a total of 30 minutes. The entry must be submitted with titles of each segment (2-5 segments) and air dates of each segment.

4. SPECIAL RULES FOR EPISODIC SERIES ENTRIES

4a. PRODUCER ELIGIBILITY

If a series has six episodes eligible in the current eligibility year (2009), all producers are eligible and must be entered jointly. If a series has seven or more eligible episodes, only those series and segment producers who worked on 40% or more of the episodes or one or more of the segments submitted for Emmy judging are considered Emmy-eligible and may enter the competition.

In either case, the producer who makes the entry must list the names of all other eligible producers.

4b. SPECIALS WITHIN SERIES

Series episodes that focus on a single topic or are otherwise considered "special" may be withdrawn from the series and entered as specials. Please note: a "special episode" is a program broadcast in one or two parts and is a different format, title or length from a regular series episode. Any episode that is entered in a category for specials is no longer counted with or considered part of the series, i.e., a series episode cannot be moved to a specials category and retained as part of the series - it has to be one or the other. All entries are subject to approval by the awards committee.

4c. SERIES WITHIN SERIES

Three or more series episodes that have a single topic and are clustered as a "series within a series" may be entered as a separate series. For example, a series of 7 episodes may have the topics A, B, C, D, D, D, and E. Since the "D" episodes are like one another and different from the rest of the episodes, they may be entered separately in an appropriate series category.

5. REGULARLY SCHEDULED DAILY NEWS: "MORNING", "DAYTIME" AND "EVENING" NEWS CATEGORIES

The eligibility period for these categories is restricted to November 5, 2009.

6. EXECUTIVE & ASSOCIATE PRODUCER ELIGIBILITY

Executive and Associate Producer(s) may join the producer(s) as eligible entrant(s) in those cases where they are actively and intimately involved in the program and are verified as such by the appropriate Program or News Director during the verification process.

7. CATEGORIES

Categories that receive 6 or more entries is a single, must give award that is the result of head-to-head competition with the highest vote-getter receiving an Emmy. Where there are 5 or less entries in a category, any entry that gets a 2/3 approval receives a nomination. Highest vote-getter wins.

8. ERRORS OR OMISSIONS

The deadline for errors or omissions in the listing of entries is March 5, 2010, 5pm. Nominations will be announced June 24, 2010. The deadline for correcting errors in the listing of nominations is June 30, 2010. Except for those cases where the omission of a name is an Academy error, no names will be added to a nomination.

9. COMMEMORATIVE STATUES

Individuals with Emmy-eligible titles may purchase a statue if they are credited on an Emmy Award-winning achievement (limited to Categories 1 through 35). Commemorative Emmy statues honor's an individual's participation in an Emmy award winning achievement.

10. EMMY-ELIGIBLE TITLES:

Emmy-eligible titles are: ASSIGNMENT EDITOR & ASSIGNMENT MANAGER (Categories 21, 33, 34 & 35 only) ART DIRECTOR, ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR, CAMERA, COMPOSER, DIRECTOR, EDITOR, ENGINEER IN CHARGE (EIC) (Categories 14, 17 and 18 only) GRAPHIC DESIGNER, LIGHTING DIRECTOR, NEWS TECHNICAL OPERATIONS CENTER ENGINEER ("T.O.C.") (Categories 21, 33, 34 and 35 only.), ON-CAMERA TALENT, PRODUCER, REPORTER, SENIOR VIDEO CONTROL, SOUND (EDIT OR MIX), STAGE MANAGER, TECHNICAL DIRECTOR, and WRITER.

NOTE: See categories 1-48 for Emmy-eligible titles that are eligible within each category.

AT HOME JUDGING

The success of the Emmy Awards depends upon the willingness of quality television professionals to act as judges. Volunteers from the Academy's peer groups will be asked to serve as judges. Judges must be active members of the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences.

March-April At-Home Judging Schedule

March 10- Call for Judges

March 19- RSVP deadline

March 29 (week of) Ballots, DVDs and affidavits will be sent out

April 16- Deadline to return ballots and affidavits to Ernst & Young

April-May At-Home Judging Schedule

April 21- Call for Judges

April 30- RSVP deadline

May 10 (week of) Ballots, DVDs and affidavits will be sent out

May 28- Deadline to return ballots and affidavits to Ernst & Young

A minimum of 6 judges is required to complete each category, with no more than 1/3 of the judges from one station or affiliation.

Judges that have a conflict of interest with an entry will not be permitted to vote within the entry category.

Judges are required to sign a voter affidavit.

The voter affidavit will read:

By signing this affidavit I affirm that (a) I have watched at least 50% of each DVD and (b) I have acted fairly and without bias in evaluating each DVD and (c) I have not and will not disclose how I voted on any of the entries I have viewed. I further affirm that neither I nor any member of my family have/has been directly responsible for the development or production or exhibition of any of the entries that I am judging. I also affirm that I will not sell or otherwise transfer possession of the DVDs I have received in any manner and will either keep, destroy or return them to the Television Academy upon completion of my use.

Judging of individual achievement categories should be judged by peer judging, e.g., writer members may judge writing categories.

Ballots, DVDs, affidavits and judging instructions will be sent via FEDEX to each judge. A return postage paid FEDEX envelope will be provided for return of ballots and affidavits to accounting firm, Ernst & Young.
